GERMANY IS ABLAZE WITH REVOLUTION

TROOPS RECEIVE NEWS WITH JOY

Allied Soldiers Learn They Are to Be Recalled From Northern Russia.

PEOPLE ARE ANXIOUS

Official Circles and Population Are Wondering Whether Other Troops Will Be Sent or the Campaign Abandoned.

Archangel, Feb. 22.—The troops joyfully received the official news from Washington that the Americans in North Russia are to be withdrawn at the earliest possible moment in the spring, but official circles and the Russian people are anxious to know whether other troops will be sent to replace them or whether it means the abandonment of this front.

Navigation is now closed, and according to naval advices, June will be the earliest month for the opening of the ice floes.

All Are Selectives.

The American troops affected by the announcement are the 339th infantry and one battalion of the 310th engineers, all draft forces entitled to demobilization after the conclusion of the war. There is considerable speculation in Archangel whether they will be replaced by regulars or marines.

DeWitt C. Poole, Jr., counselor of the American embassy, has issued the following statement:

"In connection with the Washington announcement, the American embassy in Archangel states it understands this announcement relates only to the disposition of the American troops now here. It does not determine one way or another the general question of the continued presence of an American force in Northern Russia, nor is it understood to disclose a decision as to the future American policy in Russia.

Decision Up to Conference. "Further determination of this awaits a further decision by the Peace conference at Paris.

"From a consultation with competent transportation authorities it appears that with normal conditions the earliest possible moment at which considerable bodies of troops can be moved away from Archangel will be in June."

London, Feb. 22.—A German wireless message received here quotes Philipp Scheidemann, German chancellor, as saying that Herr Rosehaupt, Bavarian minister of war, has been killed.

The shooting took place during the Landtag, while Auer was alluding to the assassination of Kurt Eisner, Bavarian premier.

Auer fell wounded in the left side. Deputy Osel was killed and two other officials were seriously wounded.

The shots were fired from the public gallery and caused a panic among the deputies.

The diet building now is being guarded by the military.

Herr Auer is a member of the majority Socialist party. He first came into prominence in November at the time of the Bavarian revolt, taking the portfolio of the minister of the interior in the new cabinet.

AFTER POLISH PRESIDENCY

Paderewski and Pilsudski Conducting Lively Campaign.

Warsaw, Feb. 22.—The campaign between Ignace Jan Paderewski and Gen. Joseph Pilsudski for the presidency of the new republic of Poland is in full swing.

Paderewski, although he probably is more popular with the people than his rival, is not having clear sailing by any means. Pilsudski's strength lies in his popularity with the army.

BERGER RETAINS HIS SEAT

Conviction Does Not Exclude Him Next Congress.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Sentencing of Victor L. Berger, Socialist congressman-elect from Wisconsin, does not automatically exclude him from the Sixty-sixth congress.

The House, under the constitution, is judge of its own membership and so will have to pass on Berger's fitness to hold his seat when his credentials are presented.

Relentless War Against Radicals

BY FRANK J. TAYLOR
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Weimar, Feb. 22.—Chancellor Scheidemann after stating that the assassination of Premier Kurt Eisner and Minister Auer left Munich in control of the Spartacists today declared that relentless warfare will be waged against the radicals. His speech was wildly cheered by all except the radical who hissed.

The government has been ordered to employ every force at its command to crush terrorism everywhere the chancellor said. The cabinet feels that the new revolution has actually begun and is determined though apprehensive. The government forces evidently have been unable to control the situation in the Ruhr and Rhine districts.

Paris, Feb. 22.—A state of siege has been proclaimed in Budapest following the communist riots Thursday evening, says a Zurich dispatch. Reports from various sources today showed that Spartacist outbreaks in the Ruhr and Rhine districts are growing more menacing, that Munich is in the hands of the radicals, and that Budapest is endangered by an incipient revolt. STATE CAUSE OF SOCIAL UNREST

Bankers and Federal Officials Appear Before the Trade Commission.

SWINDLERS ARE BUSY

Operations of Stock Sharks Growing Larger as Market Created by Campaigns for Sale of Liberty Bonds Is Realized Upon.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Bankers and government officials appearing before the federal trade commission declared operations of stock swindlers, growing larger daily as the market created by the campaigns for the sale of Liberty Bonds is realized upon, were a prime cause of social unrest.

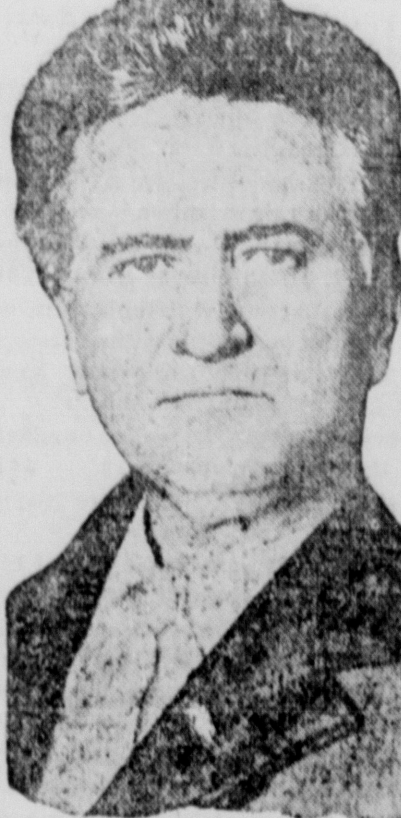

The commission was holding hearings to determine whether it has power to stop such operations. Some witnesses presented arguments to show it has, while others said existing state "blue sky" laws could not reach far enough to accomplish the end.

Charles S. Hamlin of the Federal Reserve board, said the Capital Issues committee, which functioned during the war had no effective power now, although reports coming constantly to its attention, showed a revival of "fake security selling."

"The earmark of the stock swindler today is his enthusiastic willingness to take Liberty Bonds in exchange for the paper he sells," said John Westerfield, representing the New York Stock Exchange. "That is the new market, along with the promise of immense return that is old. The industry is assuming proportions today that enable it to strike the foundations of our economic structure and magnify social unrest."

"We have investigated 130 national swindlers during the past year," Richard H. Lee, representing the Vigilance Committee of the Associated Clubs, testified, "and we have found the machinery at the disposition of the Postoffice department is not sufficient to meet the need, willing though the responsible officials are. There are not so many successful promoters as one would suppose and if you start out you'll find them all in one group."

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE

Senator La Follette of Wisconsin vigorously defended his loyalty in the course of a long address in the senate on what he pictured as causes for popular unrest in the United States. The senator declared he would no longer permit aspersions on his loyalty.

ASKS FOR 500,000 MEN

Baker Appears Before Senate Military Committee.

Secretary Urges Large Temporary Force Owing to Unsettled European Conditions.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Establishment of a temporary army of 500,000 men instead of 175,000 as provided for in a bill agreed upon by senate and house conferees was urged before the senate military committee by Secretary Baker and General March, chief of staff. The committee is considering the billion dollar army appropriation measure recently passed by the house.

Secretary Baker and General March appeared at the request of the committee, which is seeking to iron out differences growing out of the house action in eliminating from the appropriation measure legislation for an army of 500,000 but retaining in the bill certain appropriations designed to support an army of that size.

Secretary Baker told the committee a permanent military establishment could not be decided upon until after the peace conference had concluded its work and because of the unsettled European conditions it was difficult to determine the size of a temporary army. He thought a force of 500,000 would be adequate, however.

WOULD HAVE POPULAR VOTE

Borah Urges Reference of League of Nations to People.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Senator W. E. Borah of Idaho demanded that the American people be given a vote on the League of Nations constitution before the government binds itself under the compact.

In a speech to the senate Borah warned that if the people are not now afforded this opportunity to express their unclouded opinion, they may take the opportunity later to speak their mind. Senator Borah called the League of Nations the "most radical departure from our policies that we have ever considered."

KURT EISNER IS SHOT AND KILLED

Bavarian Premier, Ebert's Principal Opponent, Is Victim of Assassin's Bullet.

MURDERER IS WOUNDED

Count Ancouville, Who Took Official's Life Severely Hurt by Guard—Bureaucrats Still in Power in Germany

Dondon, Feb. 22.—According to a Munich dispatch received in Amsterdam, Kurt Eisner, premier of Bavaria, was shot and killed by Lieutenant Count Ancouville. The count was wounded severely by a guard and is said to be dying.

Since the killing of Karl Liebknecht by a mob in Berlin, Kurt Eisner has been the chief opponent of the Ebert-Scheidemann or majority socialist element in Germany.

Eisner took strong ground last fall against the German junkers and asserted he would prove from official records the former kaiser's government deliberately provoked the world war.

Hugo Haase, minority socialist and foreign minister in the Ebert cabinet, made declarations similar to Eisner's. Haase was forced to resign.

Bureaucrats Still in Power. Paris, Feb. 22.—The German government is the same bureaucratic regime of the kaiser's day, with the same attitude toward labor and capital and does not represent the forces which caused the revolution," says Alonzo E. Taylor, food specialist, who has just returned from Germany.

"Count von Bernstorff is in charge of American affairs and the foreign office and the bureaucracy of the old school are in evidence everywhere," he added. "The Germans are becoming Russified. They are afraid to put untold men into the service."

Could Restore Militarism. The German army has apparently been disorganized and demobilized for the most part, Dr. Taylor says, but he believes it will be possible for a well organized bureaucracy to restore militarism if it is deemed desirable. Many Germans believe they will recover their battalions and merchant fleet and do not expect to give up any territory and, in Dr. Taylor's opinion a grave political upheaval is possible with the signing of the treaty of peace.

Idleness Encouraged. The present lull is regarded as unnatural by Dr. Taylor, who says it was possibly created by the payment of large indemnities to unemployed persons and by suspending action on all questions vital to the future of the nation.

Plays so immoral that they would have been prohibited under the imperial regime are now tolerated; thieving is prevalent; looting is common and general public morale is low, Dr. Taylor remarks.

Lack of fuel and raw materials has closed virtually all industries and the railroads are hampered because they have little coal. Labor conditions are so bad at the coal mines that there is little prospect of an increase in the fuel output.

Gayety to Be Restricted. The carnival of dancing, wine drinking and night revels into which certain classes of the population of Berlin and other large cities have plunged since the signing of the armistice hereafter will be restricted by the police under an order issued today.

FROM LUXEMBURG

Sergeant Albert L. Whirley of Engineers Corps Writes His Parents.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Whirley

Sergeant Albert L. Whirley of Co. F, 55th Engineers, A. P. O. 713, A. E. F., France, writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whirley, 1515 9th street Northeast, of life in Luxembourg, under date of January 22: Dear Father, Mother and Brothers:

I will drop you a few lines tonight to let you know that I nearly froze to a finish the other night. It sure is cold here. I never thought it was so cold here.

I lived in Brainerd nearly twenty-one years where it gets to 50 below, and I never felt the cold as bad as I do here. It sure is a stinger.

Well, I have been conveying for two months and am nearly worn out. I have been from one end of little France to the other. So you people back home can see the ground that our convoy has covered.

I sure will be glad when I get back to the good old U. S. A. I have eaten nothing but corn willy and hard tack since we started. So imagine how fat I am. I weigh 147 pounds now. But wait until I reach Dick's lunch room. I sure will have ham and eggs if it costs me one round dollar or two. It makes no difference to an American soldier. They will call on one pair as quick as two pair.

I am an engineer myself and am driving a Henry Ford car. And I sure enjoy my riding over the shell holes. I haven't had a puncture or blow out yet. No, not much, but expect one every minute. Well, as my lines are straggly and I've got cold feet, I think it is nearly time to go to roost.

I have a swell bed in the bottom of a truck, only three blankets and one shelter half. I hope it doesn't rain. Hope I get to you people soon so as to tell you how the huns gave in to me and my Ford, and I captured one hun ride.

Well, I wish I had time, I would make my letter long, but my time is precious and the end is coming slow but sure. I don't know what kind of a Christmas and happy New Year you folks had, but I sure had a swell one. So I will close these few lines now, hoping to see you all before long. Love to all.

ACCOUNTANTS WANTED

Government Has Some Big Tasks in Accounting and Auditing as a Result of the War

Washington, D. C., Feb. 22.—The Government has some big tasks in accounting and auditing on its hands as a result of the war, and is willing to pay good salaries to men and women who are qualified to perform them.

The Income Tax Unit of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, Treasury Department, is in urgent need of 350 traveling auditors and resident auditors for the higher-grade positions, which pay entrance salaries from $3,000 to $4,500 a year.

The Ordnance Department of the Army needs at once 250 senior cost accountants at entrance from $2,300 to $4,200 a year, and 250 junior cost accountants at $1,200 to $2,000 a year.

The Interstate Commerce Commission wants 50 examiners of accounts. These are usually appointed at entrance salaries from $1,800 to $2,100 a year, the higher-salaried positions, paying from $2,200 to $3,000 a year or more, being filled as a rule by promotion.

All of these positions are open to both men and women, except positions of examiner of accounts in the Interstate Commerce Commission, which are open to men only.

The United States Civil Service Commission will receive applications for these positions at any time until further notice. Full information and application blanks may be obtained by calling upon the secretary of the local board of civil-service examiners at the customhouse or post-office in any important city, or by communicating with the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

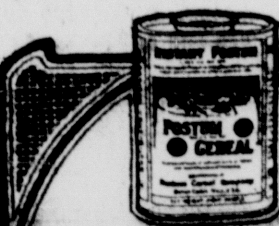

Applicants will not be assembled for a written examination but will be rated upon their sworn statements in their applications as to education, experience, etc., and upon corroborative evidence by the Civil Service Commission.

Give Plants Air and Light.

If potted plants are set in jardiniere, be sure no water stands in them and that the jardiniere is large enough to permit of circulation of air around it. Plants need light, pure air, and cleanliness as much as human beings.

Changes in Time's Reckoning.

So perfect was the Julian style of reckoning that it prevailed generally among the Christian nations and remained undisturbed till the minutes had amounted in 1582 to ten complete days, the vernal equinox falling on the 11th instead of the 21st of March. This shifting of days has caused great disturbance by unfixing the times of the celebration of Easter, and hence of all the movable feasts, and accordingly Pope Gregory, with the aid of Clavius, the astronomer, ordained that ten days should be deducted from the year 1582 by calling what would have been the 5th of October according to the old calendar, the 15th of October, 1582, by the new one. It was further ordained that every hundredth year should not be counted as a leap year, excepting every fourth hundredth beginning with 1600. In this way the difference between the civil and natural year will not amount to a day in 3,000 years.

NAZIMOVA

Nazimova, conceded to be the most fascinating and talented actress on the screen, drew crowded houses at the Park theatre on the first day's presentation of "Eye for Eye." The production will be repeated today on Washington's Birthday. Special music accompanies it.

Nazimova is seen in the role of Hassouna, a Bedouin girl of the desert. It is a vivid drama of the Orient. The story is that of an Arabian girl, fiery and beautiful, who lives with her tribe in a city of tents on the edge of the desert. The French sent an expedition to the tribe of the Lost Roses and trouble ensues. All the French are cut down except their commander. He is taken prisoner.

Hassouna plays on the susceptibility of the sentry at the tent, tosses in a knife to the Frenchman and he escapes. When the loss of the prisoner is discovered she confesses and is condemned to death, being given a jug of water and deserted to die of thirst.

Another tribe picks her up, sells her in the slave market and she becomes the possession of a traveling circus. Views of the Orient give the languorous atmosphere in direct contrast with scenes of France, Oriental and Occidental life—love, hate, jealousy, deceit, treachery and revenge—all have their turn in this gripping and amazing play.

Wonderful things in the play are the dancing of Hassouna, her throwing a dagger within an inch of an adventurer's head, her spring dance in the desert, the infatuation of the sentry, the scene of the three lovers and the dismissal of two. It's a sensation all the way through the play and charms people. As a bewitching Oriental girl Nazimova knows no peer.

WOMAN'S REALM

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION HERE

Opens Sunday Afternoon at Bethlehem Lutheran Church on South 7th St., 3:30 o'clock

W. H. SCHILLING ADDRESS
In the Absence of Sergt. George Berggreen, Dr. Joseph Nicholson will Preside

The Brainerd District Sunday school convention will be held at the Bethlehem Lutheran church on South Seventh street on Sunday, Feb. 23. At 3:30 in the afternoon there will be a general conference for Sunday school workers conducted by W. H. Schilling, superintendent of the Minnesota Sunday School Association. Rev. Schilling is prominent in religious educational work, in all that applies to teaching, to grading, training of teachers and proper equipment of Sunday schools.

At 7:30 in the evening there will be song service. Scripture and prayer by Rev. Walter J. Smith. The Bethlehem quartet will sing, "Arise Shine." Miss Esther Fogelstrom, secretary, will read her report. An offering follows and then the solo, "My Beautiful Home Above" by Mrs. George Berggreen. An address will be given by Mr. Schilling.

In the absence of George Berggreen, president, Dr. Joseph Nicholson will preside. Mr. Berggreen is a sergeant in army service.

All Protestant churches will join in the services at Bethlehem church in the evening.

Rosvold-Peterson

Miss Ragna Rosvold of Motley was married to Christ Oliver Peterson, lately returned from army service, at the parsonage of the Bethlehem Lutheran church, Rev. M. L. Hestager officiating at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The attendants were Adolph Rosvold, a brother, and Miss Paulina Rosvold, a sister of the bride. After a short wedding trip the young couple will make their home at Proctor.

At the Best Tomorrow

"Five Thousand an Hour," the Metro play starring Hale Hamilton, which will appear at the Best theatre tomorrow, shows distinguished talent from all angles of the production—in the acting, authorship and direction.

Mr. Hamilton, who is seen as the star, is an actor of note and distinction both here and abroad and is known internationally for his famous presentation of the role of Wallingford in "Get-rich-quick Wallingford," which created such furore in England that it was caused, by Royal Command, to be presented before the King and Queen at Windsor Castle. Lucille Lee Stewart, who is seen in the leading feminine role of Constance Joy, is famous throughout the country for her beauty and charming personality and splendid screen work. Others of the cast, too numerous to mention are all well known in the theatrical world.

The play was taken from the clever novel of the same name written by George Randolph Chester, the eminent novelist and playwright, who was also the author of "Get-rich-quick Wallingford."

The production was made by Director Ralph W. Ince, one of the most distinguished of screen directors in America who has produced many famous productions both here and abroad.

Another distinguished member of the cast of "Five Thousand an Hour," worthy of note, is Hannibal, the beautiful chestnut horse, winner of the Saratoga Special. Hannibal is seen in the picture in the now famous race in which he won the cash prize of nine thousand dollars and the gold cup valued at ten thousand.

At the Best Today

The face of Lila Lee is a new and charming addition to the films. If her work in "The Cruise of the Make-Believes," her first Paramount picture, which is presented at the Best theatre today, is fair evidence of the sort of acting she is to give us in later screen plays, it is safe to assume that she will soon find her way to the hearts of thousands of admirers, and will be known as one of the prettiest and most popular little actresses in animated pictures.

"The Cruise of the Make-Believes" is a charming and fanciful story that holds the interest of the spectator throughout and little Miss Lee's beautiful and mobile face expresses the changes of emotions evoked by the characterization, in a thoroughly delightful way. It is doubtful if a more suitable first story for Miss Lee could have been found than this charming version of Tom Gallon's famous novel.

St. Paul's Guild Meeting

The Ladies Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will give a card party Friday evening, Feb. 28 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowell, 320 North 4th street.

At the Best Monday

Of the personal experiences in the World War that have been published in the last two or three years, those of Harold Peat, known as "Private Peat" have engaged public attention almost exclusively. Mr. Peat's two years in the trenches, of which he speaks in his famous lecture, "Two Years in Hell and Back With a Smile," were experiences allotted to few and they have been visualized strikingly by Paramount in the photoplay "Private Peat," in which Mr. Peat is the star, and which will be displayed at the Best theatre next Monday.

Has Biblical Sanction.

The American Humane Education society thinks it has made a point by showing that "Spare the rod and spoil the child" cannot be found in the Bible, but was written by Samuel Butler in 1633. Butler probably got the alliterative "spare and spoil" from Ralph Venning, who used it in 1649, but the idea goes back to Proverbs 13:24: "He that spareth his rod hateth his son; but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes." We are with the Humane society (and the chastening) in questioning the dominance of unselfish love in the average "chastening," but cannot approve of its quibbling as to the quotation, so far as substantial sanction goes.

But most people would be surprised to learn that the exact words were not scriptural, just as they would be to learn that there is no direct statement about the lion and the lamb lying down together. Many still think "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb" is from the Bible, although Sterne quoted it, without credit, from Henry Estienne. Wesley's vague quotation of an ancient Hebrew's "Cleanliness is next to godliness" sounds like Bible. Numerous passages from hymns are also erroneously ascribed to scripture.—New York Times.

MYSTERIOUS PAINS AND ACHES

Make Life Hard to Bear For Many Brainerd Women

Too many women mistake their pains and aches for troubles peculiar to the sex. More often disordered kidneys are causing the aching back, dizzy spells, headaches and irregular urination. Kidney weakness becomes dangerous if neglected. Use a time-tried kidney remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. Hosts of people testify to their merit. Read a Brainerd case:

Mrs. A. Noakes, 313 S. Ninth St., Brainerd, says: "I had been feeling miserable and sick all over for about a year and didn't know what was wrong with me until my kidneys began to show they were disordered. My feet would swell when I went to take off my shoes in the evening. I always had a tired and depressed feeling. I tried different remedies with no relief. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Skauge Drug Co. and began using them. After I had taken four boxes, I was cured."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Noakes had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEW BANK CASHIER

Graduate of Dakota Business College Promoted

It has been announced that C. J. Wage is to be the new cashier of the First State Bank, Ferny, S. D. Mr. Wage has risen steadily in the banking business since his graduation from the Dakota Business College, Fargo, N. D.

Pupils of this seat of business learning are always in great demand by banks and business firms. Just recently two positions with the America-Sharon Land Co., America, N. D., were filled by D. B. C. pupils, C. P. Meintzer at a salary of $125.00 and Maurice Bean at $85.00. Miss Eleanor Marks has just been employed by the North Dakota Legislature at Bismarck and Miss Mabel Danton by P. P. Schlosier, Registrar of Deeds, Gronto Co., Carson, N. D.

The great demand for D. B. C. pupils is no doubt due to the fact that real business methods and not mere text-book theories are taught. F. L. Watkins, President of the Dakota Business College 806 Front Street, Fargo, N. D., is always ready to answer inquiries.

THE A. E. F. ON THE Y. M. C. A.

The Stars and Stripes, France—the Soldiers Newspaper

To be thoroughly fashionable these days it is absolutely essential to jump on the Y. M. C. A. All the best people are doing it. An investigation of the Red Triangle has been in progress in the states and the same newspapers which a few months ago, were rashly giving over their columns to quite unscrutinized publicity for the Y are now devoting these columns to the most blistering criticism.

Out of all the jabber there will probably emerge the fact that the Y. M. C. A. was unexpectedly burdened with a much bigger task than it could possibly have performed to the satisfaction of all concerned, and that it was chiefly handicapped by an unfortunately chosen personnel. In its personnel its chief weakness has lain.

And on this point it should be remembered that the Y, unlike the government had to take what it could get. It could not draft, and it was obliged to do its recruiting for a most difficult job after the best America could boast in youth and enthusiasm had already been pledged to the army and navy.

How difficult its problem was you will never appreciate till you try to select a half a dozen ideal Y secretaries from among your own acquaintances. Old Shag Brown, the former football star, you say. But Brown was an artillery officer—graduate of the first Plattsburg camp. Buck Jones, then. But Buck has five kids and couldn't possibly walk out on 'em. Well, then, Hank Norton. Ah, but Norton enlisted in the infantry and was killed leading his platoon, on November 11. You see, it wasn't easy.

Perhaps it would have been better if the Y. M. C. A. had been a mere shell to receive the money the home folks were sure to want to blow on luxuries for their boys at war, a great plate to catch not only the millions of the oil kings, but the nickels of the washwoman. The personnel to distribute all these bounties could have been chosen from the army's own ranks—as time went on—from among the men crippled in the fighting. A wounded man would have made the ideal Y. M. C. A. secretary. There was no one else in all the world who could have understood soldiers so well or been so well understood by them.

COMMUNICATION

Editor Dispatch—

The movement to erect a suitable memorial of some kind in honor of our brave soldier boys would no doubt meet with the hearty approval of everyone if a popular form of memorial were chosen. If it is to be in the form of an expensive granite shaft, which would serve but one purpose. It is doubtful that the public would respond as liberally as they would if a memorial were chosen that would serve some useful purpose as well.

The fact is that during the past two years the public have been called upon to buy to give, and subscribe "until it hurts" and the end is not yet. It is reasonable to presume that under such circumstances, no matter how worthy the cause, the public is not in such financial circumstances as would enable them to respond with a large degree of liberality at this time.

Commercial Air Routes.

London, Feb. 22.—"Preparations must be made for the day when all British air routes will play a great part in the maintenance of the commercial existence of the British empire," said Maj. Gen. Sir Frederick H. Sykes, controller general of civil aviation. He said that the British government had for some time been engaged in mapping out stages on an air route from Cairo to Australia by way of Karachi, Singapore and the Sunda Islands. Postal service by airplane is a practical proposition," he said.

PVT. JESSIE R. FREEMAN

Recovering From Influenza in Hospital Near Trier, Germany—With Army of Occupation

Private Jesse R. Freeman, Co. G., 360th Infantry, A. E. F., under date of January 21, writes from Vac. Hospital No. 3, Trier, Germany, to his mother and all:

"It has been a week since I have written to you folks, but I have been sick in bed with the flu. Yesterday was the first time I have been outside for a week. I am feeling fine again now.

"My eyes are getting on fine now. Think I will be leaving here soon. I wish I could get back to my company so I would get some mail. We are still having fine weather. Have not had any snow yet. Last night was the first time there has been any ice on the ground. It has been raining some, but not so much as last month.

"We are going to have a show here tonight. I expect it will be good. We are having good eats now, jam and milk, rice and cocoa, for a best I have eaten since I came across. We sure do have a good time in our ward. Most of the fellows are in for their eyes and are not very sick. I would like to visit the city where I am before I go, but do not think I will get the chance. It is one of the oldest cities in Europe, built before Christ. I have seen a lot of sights and gone through many hardships, but I am glad any way I came. One hears of so many boys getting home, it makes the rest of us homesick. I will close with love to all and hope it finds all of you well."

Many Germans Arrested.

American Headquarters in Germany, Feb. 4.—Two hundred and nineteen Germans have been arrested and tried by American courts martial during the two months of American occupation, according to figures made public. There were 206 convictions, imprisonments ranged from one to 90 days and fines from one mark (25 cents) to 500 marks ($125). Offenses included violation of liquor regulations, wearing German military uniforms and holding unauthorized meetings.

COMING BACK TWICE, IT'S KID GLEASON

BY H. C. HAMILTON,
 (Staff Correspondent, United Press)

CHAPTER VIII

When Clarence Rowland assumed the responsibilities as manager of the White Sox the team that Comiskey was grooming to fight for a world pennant was badly in need of a coach. Things were going along in a so-so manner and the men were not delivering as they should. Consequently during the winter of 1916-1917, the Old Roman succeeded in coaxing Gleason away from his eastern business and back into baseball.

The effect was noticeable at once. The individuality that Gleason always seems able to impart to young players under his tutelage developed at once in the youthful players assigned to infield positions by Rowland. In Swede Risberg, Gleason found a willing pupil for his fighting ideas, and he developed in Risberg an absolutely fearless, scrappy shortstop who stands even today as an exponent of old-time baseball—the kind of baseball the Orioles played.

Down the rag end of the 1917 season the White Sox charged, a weary crew, fighting off attack after attack from the Tigers and Red Sox. For a few days it seemed the superior fighting ability and stronger pitching staff of the Boston team would deprive Comiskey of his hopes for another pennant winner in the American league.

It was the fighting spirit of Kid Gleason that stepped into the breach, practically lifted the reins of authority from Clarence Rowland and deftly guided the faltering machine through the rough spots to a pennant.

Gleason, let it be understood, had no thought of directing the team's play, but his unconscious strength of personality, imparting confidence and his own ideas to the weary and crippled Sox, gave the club a Gleason tinge and left no doubt in the minds of close critics as to who was really responsible for the tenacity shown by the Comiskey team.

The Sox had been charged with having no heart. They were said to be a listless organization, easily beaten when the other team was leading, but Gleason showed that they weren't. He made them fight the way he had fought and they did a good job of it.

When the world's series came around and the Sox met the giants for the game's greatest honors, it was the Giants who went onto the field with piling faces—not the White Sox. They won mainly because of the Kid Gleason spirit that had lifted them to the pennant.

Law of Compensation.

The law of compensation is, even in these wonderful modern days, very much in evidence. Most of us—in fact, all of us—receive from the world just what we give to it. Smiles and happy words will fall from other lips to us if we ourselves play the same role; but if we are too busy or too "big" to practice those little courtesies we should not be surprised to see only frowns on the faces we meet.

Your druggist has a product called SALINOS, which will completely empty the bowels and will remove the cause of sour stomach. It will do more—it will remove the cause of nearly all sickness. Food waste, which lies in the bowels creates dangerous poisons, which are absorbed into the blood. Use SALINOS and avoid this danger.

7TH ANNIVERSARY OF MOOSE LODGE

Program, Refreshments and Dance
Given by Loyal Order of the Moose in Brainerd

JOHN F. ELKINS PRESIDED

The Moose Made a Great Record in War Work in All Branches of the Service

The seventh annual anniversary of the Loyal Order of the Moose lodge was celebrated in gala style at their hall in the Iron Exchange building on Thursday evening with a musical program, luncheon and dance. The hall was crowded to capacity.

Prominent in hall decorations was the service flag of the lodge bearing 19 stars.

Major John F. Elkins presided as toastmaster at the program given.

Judge Walter F. Wieland gave an address recounting the war work done by the Moose lodges of the nation. For war work alone the Moose raised $1,200,000 in special assessments. Fifty thousand Moose were in the army. A full regiment of Moose, 3,500, was recruited.

The Moose furnished nurses, doctors, ambulance corps, canteens and canteen workers, etc.

In civilian relief and the assistance extended innocent child labor, the Moose also rank high. At Mooseheart, Ill., several hundred children are being cared for and educated. Two hundred wounded soldiers are at Mooseheart recuperating.

Other numbers on the program were a violin solo by Irene Evans; saxophone and piano by the Crust brothers; violin solo by O. Ness; piano solo by Prof. Wm. P. Barsch; cello solo Wm. Rodenkirchen; cornet solo John H. Broschinski.

Only 16 when he enlisted, Private Louis Hickethier, son of Oscar E. Hickethier, may well lay claim to being one of the youngest soldiers in the army. He returned home on Thursday night from overseas, being mustered out at Camp Dodge, Iowa.

Louis is tall and strong for his age. He enlisted in April, 1917, serving almost two years in the army and his eighteenth birthday will not be attained until March 8, this year. He was in England, Belgium and France. His brother, Dewey, is still in France.

Abraham Segal, in the quartermasters corps, was honorably discharged from Camp Wadsworth, returning to his home in Pine River.

Mrs. George E. Lowe has written her husband here that their son in the hospital at Seattle, is recovering from pneumonia. Young V. C. Lowe is in the navy.

Erwin C. O'Neill has received his honorable discharge from the navy and returned to Brainerd. He was stationed at Miami, Fla. for a year training in the aviation school. He reports having gone up as high as 10,000 feet in the air.

MINES FLOATING NEAR HOLLAND

Saw the Kiel Canal, Heligoland, Copenhagen—To Come Home Soon on a Furlough

In a letter to his brother, H. F. Menz, 320 South Seventh street, Gustav C. Menz of the U. S. S. Narragansett, writes from LeHavre, France, under date of January 24 and says: "I am a salty sailor seeing the world for nothing."

"I received your letter and was glad to hear from you. We are all well. Well Herman you wanted to know what I am doing over here. Most anything at all."

We sailed from Hoboken N. J., right across from New York city, on July 10 and it took us ten days to get to Brest, France. We had fairly good weather coming across although it was stormy enough for us.

There were twenty-two ships in our convoy including destroyers and cruisers. When we got in what they call the war zone, we met twelve more destroyers to help convey us into Brest. They sighted a periscope about a hundred miles from Brest, but the sub never attacked us. Well we got in battle formation and pulled into Brest and stayed there four days and got shore liberty there but the town is dead.

July 24th we sailed for Southampton England getting there 36 hours later. In a few days we coaled up and took American troops from there to Havre France. We made this run steady about two trips a week. Altogether from Southampton to Havre we made twenty-five trips with troops taking 4,000 each load across, back and forth making forty-eight trips. We made a few trips after the armistice was signed and then went to Havre to coal up and go to Hamburg, Germany, but when we were off the coast of Holland we received a wireless to go to Harwich, England and so we did, took on more coal, and instead of going to Hamburg went to Copenhagen, Denmark. You see our orders were changed.

On our way up we saw three mines for the night anchored at Jumi- den, Holland, as you can't see floating mines at night. Next morning we sailed for Copenhagen and on our way saw seventeen mines floating near by. We could not use the Kiel canal in going there so we had to go all the way around. That town is sure some place. Lots of cabarets and saloons. We were there a week and sailed for Rotterdam, Holland. In coming back we went through the Kiel canal and sure found it some water way. We landed at Rotterdam two days later. On our way down we saw the German fortress of Heligoland. Well Herman, I could write a book on what I have seen and have been through. I hope you are all in good health as I am. Will write more in a few days. It will be some time before I come back to the U. S. A. I have to serve four years in the navy, but I am coming home in the meantime on a furlough.

House Passes Rail Fund Bill.
Washington, Feb. 22.—The bill appropriating $750,000,000 for the railroad administration revolving fund, in addition to the $500,000,000 carried in the act which provided for federal control, was passed by the house with 15 negative votes. Senator Cummins of Iowa gave notice to the senate in interstate commerce committee that he would seek to add to the revolving fund measure his bill to prevent the return of the railroads to private ownership before congress acts on railroad legislation.

Revolt Reported at Munich.
Basle, Feb. 22.—A reactionary insurrection broke out at Munich, according to the Frankfort Zeitung. Demobilized Bavarian blue-jackets attacked the diet house and occupied the telegraph office and police headquarters but were dislodged by government troops. Prince Joachim of Prussia, sixth son of the former emperor, was arrested, it being reported that he apparently had some connection with the movement. He has been staying at Munich under the name of Count Merz.

CHILD WELFARE BOARD ACTIVITIES

County Organization is Working in Cooperation With the State
Board of Control

AIDS NEGLECTED CHILDREN

Children of School Age Should be in School—Mrs. Carl Bentley is Secretary of Board

(By County Child Welfare Board)
The county child welfare board, working in cooperation with the State Board of Control, is undertaking to find out about and help every handicapped, neglected child in the county. According to the members of the board a task of such large purposes will require the assistance and cooperation of everyone who knows of children in need or distress. The members of the board say that if any citizen of the county knows of a child who is not properly fed or clothed, or is living in unsanitary or unhealthy condition, or whose material or spiritual welfare is neglected, such cases should be reported to the child welfare board, that an effort may be made to remedy the condition.

All children of school age, according to County Superintendent of Schools Irma Camp Hartley, should be in school regularly and for the full term. The county superintendent is a member of the child welfare board. She and the board should be informed of children who are not in school and proper action will be taken. Sometimes unscrupulous persons abuse children, make them work when they should be in school, employ them for long hours or in dangerous occupation or otherwise make them labor in violation of the law. The child welfare board can help such children, and will cooperate with the State Department of Labor to that end.

In this community, as in other communities, there are feebleminded persons who are a menace to themselves, their families and the community. It is desired by the members of the child welfare board that they should know of such cases and the matter will be taken up with Probate Judge Sanborn, for commitment to the State Board of Control.

The superintendent of the State Schools for the Blind and Deaf report that there are children in the public schools who are partially either blind or deaf and who cannot be properly trained unless they are sent to the state institution for such children for the school term. The child welfare board will take the proper steps in behalf of such children.

Ill health is costly, according to the reports of the State Board of Health, and there are many children in need of medical attention, which parents sometimes refuse to give, that is removal of tonsils or adenoids, care of the teeth, crippled or deformed children, tubercular children, children with weak eyes. If the child welfare board and the county or school nurse know the facts of such cases, they can work out a plan for providing medical attention and can secure the assistance of Dr. E. J. Huenekens of the Department of Child Conservation of the State Board of Health.

It is further stated that where proper home supervision is lacking, children develop bad habits and vicious tendencies, they associate with bad companions, are guilty of immoral conduct, petty theft, rough behavior in public places, they frequent undesirable places, are guilty of truancy, incorrigibility and violation of laws and principles of right conduct. The child welfare board and Judge Sanborn of the Juvenile Court can help such children. Conditions frequently exist in villages and towns which tend to corrupt morals, such as homes of people of low moral standards, pool halls, dances and dance halls without supervision, places where liquor and tobacco are covertly supplied to children. The child welfare board should take steps to root out such influences.

According to reports from the Children's Bureau of the State Board of Control in many cases children under the age of eighteen years guilty of some violation of law are being tried before the ordinary criminal courts. Probate Judge Sanborn is the juvenile court judge and is the proper official to hear all cases where

BRAINERD 26 AITKIN 13

Brainerd emerged from the game with Aitkin last night as the winner in a fast clean game of basketball by the score of 26-13. The game was interesting throughout with Brainerd leading in team work and shooting. The players of Aitkin continually tried for long, desperate shots from past the center of the floor which greatly interfered with the team work of the locals. The guarding of Warner and Bakkila was superb, not one Aitkinite caging a field basket at close range.

The floor work of Cunningham, Reid and Higbe was also a main factor in winning, each securing baskets under great difficulties. Sherffo and Engstrom played spectacular ball on the side lines entertaining the faint hearted girls whenever Brainerd made a basket. Henry Nelson and Clifford Stoner formed the rooting squad, securing overflowing applause from the crowd through their earnest work.

The team was treated royally afterwards to a banquet by the girls of the high school, later engaging in a high school ball and reception. Coach Byers of Brainerd, was the toastmaster of the evening and made a favorable impression for the Brainerd boys.

Brainerd will probably not see the locals again in action this season on the home floor. Staples, which was to play here a week from today, has cancelled the game on account of the disbanding of their team for the season. The directors of the local team are trying to secure a game with some out side team for the next game, probably St. Cloud Normal at St. Cloud. March 8th the locals journey to Little Falls where the decisive game of the season takes place and the next week to St. Cloud, ending the season at that city.

Field goals—Brainerd, Cunningham 3, Reid 3, Higbe 2, Bakkila 2. Aitkin, Larson 2, Bookengen 2, Rogers 1. Free throws, Brainerd, Cunningham 5 out of 8, Reid 1 out of 1, Aitkin, Larson 3 out of 9. Referee—Deering of Crosby.

Offenses have been committed by children under the age of eighteen. The child welfare board if it knows this law is being violated will see that the proper procedure is followed.

Experiences of the State Board of Control according to its report has demonstrated that the unmarried mother and the illegitimate child are very often neglected, ignored or reviled. The board believes that the child welfare board of the county can lend friendly assistance and help both the mother and child. When the father fails to support his wife and children, the child welfare board, according to the State Board of Control, should cooperate with the county attorney in bringing a prompt action against the husband and father for desertion or non-support.

Records compiled by interested persons have shown that there is considerable violation of girls under eighteen years of age. The Board of Control has asked that all such cases be vigorously prosecuted under the carnal knowledge statute, and the child welfare board will cooperate to the end.

Members of the child welfare board are: L. P. Hall, Bay Lake; Wm. Syreen, Crosby; Mrs. Bert Sabin, Merrifield; Mrs. Carl Bentley, Brainerd.

All communications should be addressed to the secretary, Mrs. Carl Bentley, 623 So. 9th St., Brainerd, Minn.

According to the Children's Bureau of the State Board of Control, "The child welfare board working with the Board of Control, the board of county commissioners, the probate judge and the county attorney can help all children of the county who are not being cared for and cannot help themselves, but it is necessary that publicity be given to the efforts of the board; that all authorities cooperate; it is equally necessary that the child welfare board treat every case reported as a sacred confidence, not to be disclosed to any one under any conditions except the proper authorities at the proper time."

MORE LAMBS, TWINS BORN ON FEB. 21

When the Dispatch published Thomas Bassett's story of a February lamb, and then the Hodge's record of 36 lambs in January and some in February, there followed Albert Krueger with seven lambs born this year. He caps the climax with twin lambs born Feb. 21 on his birthday. Last year the same thing happened, twins on the 21st, the day before George Washington's birthday.

FROM BLOIS, FRANCE

Pvt. Fred E. Olson in Hdqs. Co.
Writes His Sister, Miss Myrtle
Olson of Brainerd

In a letter to his sister, Miss Myrtle Olson, of 1003 Fourth Avenue North-east, Private Fred E. Olson, stationed at Blois, France, writes under date of January 20th:

Dear Sister:
For the last couple of months I have been writing to everyone but as yet have not received a reply from one of them so am going to see what results I will have by writing to you again.

A bunch of the boys received letters this morning that had been written in the month of January and when they were reading them thought if I could only get some for the month of November I would be glad. I do not understand it as I have been at this post so long that I should be getting mail regularly.

I met a Brainerd boy here the other day by the name of Frank Ramsey and had quite a little talk with him, he said that he was coming back yesterday morning but did not show up, may be got stuck on some detail work for the day. He is going to start for the states tomorrow and promised me that he would have a talk with Pa or someone in the family and he will be able to tell you a great many interesting things, as he has been up to the front and been in some of the worst fighting he was also wounded.

Suppose by this time a great many of the boys are back to the old home town that have seen service in France. Would like to have you write me the names of some of the boys that were killed over here as suppose there must have been quite a few that I knew.

I just finished eating a box of bonbons which were very good they are put up in a small paper box and are a small candy covered with chocolate with a cream candy in the middle. A box costs one franc five centimes which is equivalent to about twenty cents in American money. I just got paid the other day and had two months coming so have got quite a few francs now. But francs never last an American soldier very long as he seems to be happier when he is broke. But think I will go slow with mine as haven't been broke since being in France which I think is some record for me.

Next Sunday think I will take a trip to Amboise and see one of the large Chateaus they have there but do not know for sure as have also been planning on going across the river if I can get a pass which I am pretty certain I can and take in the dance they have over there. It sure is a joke the way they dance over here, do not believe the French girls could have ever danced here before the Americans came, by the way they dance. I sure will be glad when I can take in a good American dance once more.

I have told you about all the experiences I have had in the other letters I have written home so really do not know what to write about, but thought that you would be glad to get a line once in a while just to know that everything is going well. When I receive mail will be able to write more as expect you will all be asking some questions and will be able to answer them, so then you can be getting news that you want.

Will come to a close with love to all.

Think In Interest—Save

HALE HAMILTON.
At the Best Tomorrow

For Employers' Consideration.
Men can have no hope in their work while they live purely from hand to mouth, and you cannot spread habits of intelligence among the laboring class if their means are too poor or their leisure too short to enable them to participate in the culture that is going on around them.—Exchange.

Creation of Civilization.
It is impossible to contemplate without interest the struggle made by different nations, as they emerge from barbarism, to supply themselves with some visible symbol of thought—that agency by which the mind of the individual may be put in communication with the minds of a whole community. The want of such a symbol is itself the greatest impediment to the progress of civilization. For what is it but to imprison the thought within the bosom of its author, or of the small circle who come in contact with him, instead of sending it abroad to give light to thousands and to generations yet unborn? Not only is such a symbol an essential element of civilization, but it may be assumed as the very criterion of civilization, for the intellectual advancement of a people will keep pace pretty nearly with its facilities for intellectual communication.—William Prescott in "The Conquest of Peru."

Undersea Photos.
Prof. W. H. Longley, of Goulay college, Baltimore, has completed a set of thirty-two under-water photographs of the brilliantly colored tropical fish which inhabit the waters of Hawaii. Taken with a specially designed camera, Prof. Longley hopes to develop the plates to reproduce the natural colors. He believes they are the first photographs of the kind taken. The plates have been packed in airtight cases for shipment to Baltimore, where they will be developed.

DEFY TERMS OF TRUCE

Germans Attacking Poles Contrary to Agreement.

Kiev Reported Again in Hands of Anarchists, Many of Whom Come From Moscow.

Warsaw, Feb. 22.—Kiev is reported to be again in the hands of the anarchists, a large number of who have come from Moscow to assist those who have been in the city.

Petlura's forces are involved in the fighting there. It is reported, and are at the same time trying to hold back the Poles on the north and resist pressure from the Roumanians in Bessarabia.

Advices received here indicate French troops advancing from Odessa are half way to Kiev.

Violating Truce Terms.
Warsaw, Feb. 22.—The Germans are reported not to be observing the provisions of the armistice agreement as to fighting in Posen and it is said that skirmishes have occurred at scattered points. The morale of the Germans is declared to be low as is evidenced by the reported sale of a battery of artillery to a Polish Catholic priest, the price being $1,500.

Colonel Haller, Polish chief of staff announced in a bulletin that there is military activity all along the Galician frontier. Attacks by Ukrainian troops have been repulsed in that region. In Lithuania thousands of Bolsheviks have been routed and prisoners taken.

Two million pounds of flour have arrived here from Danzig, coming thru by railroad in record time without interference from the Germans. It will be distributed in this city, the Lodz mining district, Cracow and Lemberg. American officers will supervise of the flour and will prevent speculators from getting it.

COUNTRY "BEER DRY" MAY 1

Prediction Made by President of United Brewers' Association.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 22.—Prediction that the nation's beer supply would be exhausted by May 1, was made in a statement issued by Christian W. Feigenspan, president of the United States Brewers' association, announcing that the breweries of this vicinity had agreed to pool their supplies "to allow each concern to stay in business as long as possible." After adding that New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut would be "beer dry" by April 1, the statement continued: "With the country dry of beer by May 1, you can see what it will mean for May and June. The country will be on a straight whisky basis, and in these days of unrest it is dangerous to have steady beer drinkers switch to whisky. The results may surprise people."

Paris, Feb. 22.—"The German government is the same bureaucratic regime of the Kaiser's day with the same attitude toward labor and capital and does not represent the forces which caused the revolution," says Alonzo E. Taylor, food specialist, who has just returned from Germany. "Count von Bernstorff is in charge of American affairs and the foreign office and the bureaucrats of the old school are in evidence everywhere," he added. "The Germans are becoming Russified."

Senator Sheppard Says Many Drinkers Cannot Realize They Soon Will Be Deprived of Liquor—Jim Mann as a Florist.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington.—While it has not been stated in debates, there is some ground for the belief that one reason why an army of 500,000 men is desired is because the administration is reluctantly coming to the conclusion that the United States must go in and clean up Mexico. It may be that no such conclusion will ever be reached, but the information which has been coming to the state department from various agencies in Mexico indicates that ultimately it will be necessary for the United States to use force of some kind in order to protect the lives and property of Americans as well as foreigners.

Of course that would mean making war on Mexico. It would probably require a declaration of war by congress, although Mexican soil has twice been invaded under direction of President Wilson without any declaration of war. One of the things that causes quite bitter complaint in congress is that the United States is now fighting in Russia without any declaration of war, which is claimed to be in violation of the Constitution. However, it may not require actual hostilities against Mexico, but only preparation which will convince the Mexicans that the United States really means to have a settlement of Mexican affairs.

Of course when the facts that have been gathered during his absence are laid before President Wilson he may not look upon them as seriously as do those men who have been making the investigations. But it is the opinion of many who have had access to the information now on file in the state department that a forceful settlement of Mexican affairs is bound to come.

"They cannot realize that we are really going to have prohibition throughout the United States," was the remark of Senator Sheppard of Texas, who has been one of the foremost promoters of the prohibition movement since he first came to congress. His remark followed a conversation about the efforts of "wet" prohibitionists who have been scurrying mightily during the last few weeks to get a supply of liquors in their possession before the Sheppard law and the Reed bone-dry amendment clamp down on the District of Columbia. It seems that a great many congressmen who voted for prohibition are prohibitionists in theory rather than in practice and they want to get some wet goods stored away in Washington against the day that is coming. To do this they have to sign affidavits that they want the liquor for personal use and they

SEVERAL WAR AGENCIES HIT

No Funds Provided in Sundry Civil Supply Bill.

Washington, Feb. 22.—No appropriations for the continuance of several government events created during the war, including the Department of Labor's employment service, are contained in the new sundry civil appropriation bill reported to the house by the appropriations committee. The measure carries $850,766,890 for various departments and also provides for turning back to the treasury $21,965,518 of unexpended war appropriations.

Think It Over.

Upon the basis that every grain of wheat will produce 50, a German mathematician has figured that the third-year progeny of a single grain would feed 309 men.

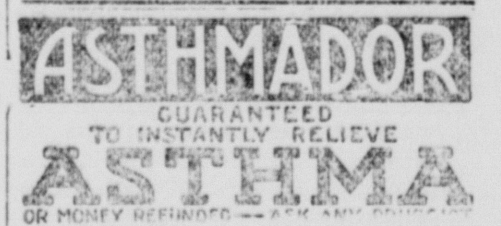

Daily Health Talks

GOING BACK TO NATURE.

BY DR. W. LUCAS.

People get sick because they go away from Nature, and the only way to get well is to go back. Something grows out of the ground in the form of vegetation to cure almost every ill. Some of these vegetable growths are understood by man, and some are not. Animals, it would seem, know what to do when they are sick better than men and women. Observers have noted that a sick horse, dog or cat will stop eating food and seek out some vegetable growth in the field or yard, which, when found and eaten, often restores appetite and health. Haven't you seen these animals do this very thing yourself?

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found the herbs and roots provided by Nature to overcome constipation, and he had these vegetables collected and made up of Mayapple, leaves of Aloe, root of Jalap, into little white sugar-coated pills, that he called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. You must understand that when your intestines are stopped up, poisons and decayed matter are imprisoned in your system, and these are carried by the blood throughout your body. Thus does your head ache, you get dizzy, you can't sleep, your skin may break out, your appetite declines, you get tired and dependent. As a matter of fact, you may get sick all over. Don't you see how useless all this suffering is? All that is often needed is a few of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which he has placed in all drug stores for your convenience and health. Try them by all means. They are probably the very thing you need right now.

General Fukushima Dead.
Tokio, Feb. 22.—General Fukushima, famed for his Siberian expedition, died suddenly of congestion of the brain. General Fukushima was the first Japanese to cross Siberia. The feat was accomplished on horseback and alone. Doubtless this is the expedition referred to. He was military attaché to the Japanese legation at Berlin in 1887-92, and it was on his return from Berlin that he crossed Siberia. Fukushima was leader of the Japanese contingent during the Boxer revolution.

TROOPS RECEIVE NEWS WITH JOY

Allied Soldiers Learn They Are to Be Recalled From Northern Russia.

PEOPLE ARE ANXIOUS

Official Circles and Population Are Wondering Whether Other Troops Will Be Sent or the Campaign Abandoned.

Archangel, Feb. 22.—The troops joyfully received the official news from Washington that the Americans in North Russia are to be withdrawn at the earliest possible moment in the spring, but official circles and the Russian people are anxious to know whether other troops will be sent to replace them or whether it means the abandonment of this front.

Navigation is now closed, and according to naval advices, June will be the earliest month for the opening of the ice floes.

All Are Selective.

The American troops affected by the announcement are the 339th infantry and one battalion of the 316th engineers, all draft forces entitled to demobilization after the conclusion of the war. There is considerable speculation in Archangel whether they will be replaced by regulars or marines.

DeWitt C. Poole, Jr., counselor of the American embassy, has issued the following statement:

"In connection with the Washington announcement, the American embassy in Archangel states it understands this announcement relates only to the disposition of the American troops now here. It does not determine one way or another the general question of the continued presence of an American force in Northern Russia, nor is it understood to disclose a decision as to the future American policy in Russia.

Decision Up to Conference. "Further determination of this awaits a further decision by the Peace conference at Paris.

"From a consultation with competent transportation authorities it appears that with normal ice conditions the earliest possible moment at which considerable bodies of troops can be moved away from Archangel will be in June."

Relentless War Against Radicals

BY FRANK J. TAYLOR (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Weimar, Feb. 22.—Chancellor Scheidemann after stating that the assassination of Premier Kurt Eisner and Minister Auer left Munich in control of the Spartacists today declared that relentless warfare will be waged against the radicals. His speech was wildly cheered by all except the radical who hissed.

The government has been ordered to employ every force at its command to crush terrorism everywhere the chancellor said. The cabinet feels that the new revolution has actually begun and is determined though apprehensive. The government forces evidently have been unable to control the situation in the Ruhr and Rhine districts.

STATE CAUSE OF SOCIAL UNREST

Bankers and Federal Officials Appear Before the Trade Commission.

SWINDLERS ARE BUSY

Operations of Stock Sharks Growing Larger as Market Created by Campaigns for Sale of Liberty Bonds Is Realized Upon.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Bankers and government officials appearing before the federal trade commission declared operations of stock swindlers, growing larger daily as the market created by the campaigns for the sale of Liberty Bonds is realized upon, were a prime cause of social unrest.

The commission was holding hearings to determine whether it has power to stop such operations. Some witnesses presented arguments to show it has, while others said existing state "blue sky" laws could not reach far enough to accomplish the end.

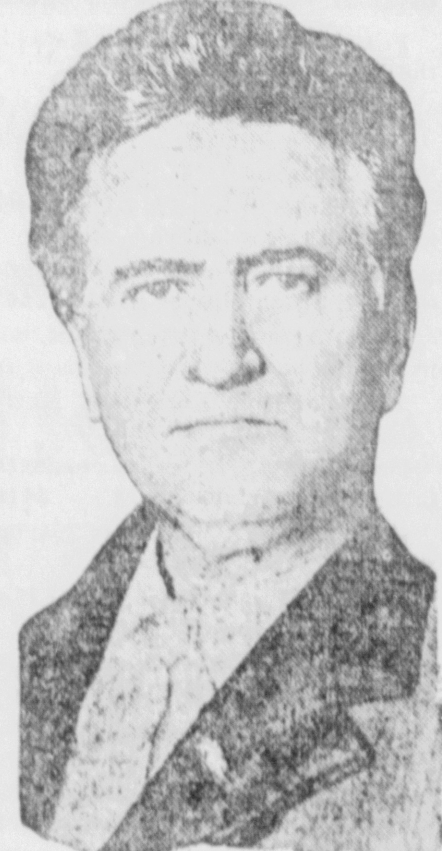

Charles S. Hamlin of the Federal Reserve board, said the Capital Issues committee, which functioned during the war had no effective power now, although reports coming constantly to its attention, showed a revival of "fake security selling."

"The earmark of the stock swindler today is his enthusiastic willingness to take Liberty Bonds in exchange for the paper he sells," said John Westerfield, representing the New York Stock Exchange. "That is the new market, along with the promise of immense return that is old. The industry is assuming proportions today that enable it to strike the foundations of our economic structure and magnify social unrest."

"We have investigated 130 national swindlers during the past year," Richard H. Lee, representing the Vigilance Committee of the Associated Clubs, testified, "and we have found the machinery at the disposition of the Postoffice department is not sufficient to meet the need, willing though the responsible officials are. There are not so many successful promoters as one would suppose and if you start out you'll find them all in one group."

ASKS FOR 500,000 MEN

Baker Appears Before Senate Military Committee.

Secretary Urges Large Temporary Force Owing to Unsettled European Conditions.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Establishment of a temporary army of 500,000 men instead of 175,000 as provided for in a bill agreed upon by senate and house conferees was urged before the senate military committee by Secretary Baker and General March, chief of staff. The committee is considering the billion dollar army appropriation measure recently passed by the house.

Secretary Baker and General March appeared at the request of the committee, which is seeking to iron out differences growing out of the house action in eliminating from the appropriation measure legislation for an army of 500,000 but retaining in the bill certain appropriations designed to support an army of that size.

Secretary Baker told the committee a permanent military establishment could not be decided upon until after the peace conference had concluded its work and because of the unsettled European conditions it was difficult to determine the size of a temporary army. He thought a force of 500,000 would be adequate, however.

Borah Urges Reference of League of Nations to People.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Senator W. E. Borah of Idaho demanded that the American people be given a vote on the League of Nations constitution before the government binds itself under the compact.

Senator Borah called the League of Nations the "most radical departure from our policies that we have ever considered."

KURT EISNER IS SHOT AND KILLED

Bavarian Premier, Ebert's Principal Opponent, Is Victim of Assassin's Bullet.

MURDERER IS WOUNDED

Count Ancouville, Who Took Official's Life Severely Hurt by Guard—Bureaucrats Still in Power in Germany

Dondon, Feb. 22.—According to a Munich dispatch received in Amsterdam, Kurt Eisner, premier of Bavaria, was shot and killed by Lieutenant Count Arcouville. The count was wounded severely by a guard and is said to be dying.

Since the killing of Karl Liebknecht by a mob in Berlin, Kurt Eisner has been the chief opponent of the Ebert-Scheidemann or majority socialist element in Germany.

Eisner took strong ground last fall against the German junkers and asserted he would prove from official records the former kaiser's government deliberately provoked the world war.

Hugo Haase, minority socialist and foreign minister in the Ebert cabinet, made declarations similar to Eisner's. Haase was forced to resign.

Bureaucrats Still in Power.

Paris, Feb. 22.—The German government is the same bureaucratic regime of the kaiser's day, with the same attitude toward labor and capital and does not represent the forces which caused the revolution," says Alonzo E. Taylor, food specialist, who has just returned from Germany.

"Count von Bernstorff is in charge of American affairs and the foreign office and the bureaucratic of the old school are in evidence everywhere," he added. "The Germans are becoming Russified. They are afraid to put untried men into the service."

Could Restore Militarism.

The German army has apparently been disorganized and demobilized for the most part, Dr. Taylor says, but he believes it will be possible for a well organized bureaucracy to restore militarism if it is deemed desirable. Many Germans believe they will recover their battalions and merchant fleet and do not expect to give up any territory and, in Dr. Taylor's opinion a grave political upheaval is possible with the signing of the treaty of peace.

Idleness Encouraged.

The present lull is regarded as unnatural by Dr. Taylor, who says it was possibly created by the payment of large indemnities to unemployed persons and by suspending action on all questions vital to the future of the nation.

Plays so immoral that they would have been prohibited under the imperial regime are now tolerated; thieving is prevalent; looting is common and general public morale is low, Dr. Taylor remarks.

Lack of fuel and raw materials has closed virtually all industries and the railroads are hampered because they have little coal. Labor conditions are so bad at the coal mines that there is little prospect of an increase in the fuel output.

Gayety to Be Restricted.

The carnival of dancing, wine drinking and night revels into which certain classes of the population of Berlin and other large cities have plunged since the signing of the armistice hereafter will be restricted by the police under an order issued today.

FROM LUXEMBURG

Sergeant Albert L. Whirley of Engineers Corps Writes His Parents.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Whirley

Sergeant Albert L. Whirley of Co. F, 55th Engineers, A. P. O. 713, A. E. F., France, writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whirley, 1515 9th street Northeast, of life in Luxembourg, under date of January 22:
Dear Father, Mother and Brothers:

I will drop you a few lines tonight to let you know that I nearly froze to a finish the other night. It sure is cold here. I never thought it was so cold here.

I lived in Brainerd nearly twenty-one years where it gets to 50 below, and I never felt the cold as bad as I do here. It sure is a stinger.

Well, I have been conveying for two months and am nearly worn out. I have been from one end of little France to the other. So you people back home can see the ground that our convoy has covered.

Nothing will be glad when I get back to the good old U. S. A. I have eaten nothing but corn willy and hard tack since we started. So imagine how fat I am. I weigh 147 pounds now. But wait until I reach Dick's lunch room. I sure will have ham and eggs if it costs me one round dollar or two, it makes no difference to an American soldier. They will call on one pair as quick as two pair.

I am an engineer myself and am driving a Henry Ford car. And I sure enjoy my riding over the shell holes. I haven't had a puncture or blow out yet. No, not much, but expect one every minute. Well, as my lines are straggly and I've got cold feet, I think it is nearly time to go to roost.

I have a swell bed in the bottom of a truck, only three blankets and one shelter half. I hope it doesn't rain. Hope I get to you people soon so as to tell you how the huns gave in to me and my Ford, and I captured one hun rifle.

Well, I wish I had time, I would make my letter long, but my time is precious and the end is coming slow but sure. I don't know what kind of a Christmas and happy New Year you folks had, but I sure had a swell one. So I will close these few lines now, hoping to see you all before long. Love to all.

ACCOUNTANTS WANTED

Government Has Some Big Tasks in Accounting and Auditing as a Result of the War

Washington, D. C., Feb. 22.—The Government has some big tasks in accounting and auditing on its hands as a result of the war, and is willing to pay good salaries to men and women who are qualified to perform them.

The Income Tax Unit of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, Treasury Department, is in urgent need of 350 traveling auditors and resident auditors for the higher-grade positions, which pay entrance salaries from $3,000 to $4,500 a year.

The Ordnance Department of the Army needs at once 250 senior cost accountants at entrance from $2,200 to $4,200 a year, and 250 junior cost accountants at $1,200 to $2,000 a year.

The Interstate Commerce Commission wants 50 examiners of accounts. These are usually appointed at entrance salaries from $1,800 to $2,100 a year, the higher-salaried positions, paying from $2,200 to $3,000 a year or more, being filled as a rule by promotion.

All of these positions are open to both men and women, except positions of examiner of accounts in the Interstate Commerce Commission, which are open to men only.

The United States Civil Service Commission will receive applications for these positions at any time until further notice. Full information and application blanks may be obtained by calling upon the secretary of the local board of civil-service examiners at the customhouse or post-office in any important city, or by communicating with the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Applicants will not be assembled for a written examination but will be rated upon their sworn statements in their applications as to education, experience, etc., and upon corroborative evidence by the Civil Service Commission.

Give Plants Air and Light.

If potted plants are set in jardinières, be sure no water stands in them and that the jardinière is large enough to permit of circulation of air around it. Plants need light, pure air, and cleanliness as much as human beings.

Changes in Time's Reckoning.

So perfect was the Julian style of reckoning that it prevailed generally among the Christian nations and remained undisturbed till the minutes had amounted in 1582 to ten complete days, the vernal equinox falling on the 11th instead of the 21st of March. This shifting of days has caused great disturbance by unfixing the times of the celebration of Easter, and hence of all the movable feasts, and accordingly Pope Gregory, with the aid of Clavius, the astronomer, ordained that ten days should be deducted from the year 1582 by calling what would have been the 5th of October according to the old calendar, the 15th of October, 1582, by the new one. It was further ordained that every hundredth year should not be counted as a leap year, excepting every fourth hundredth beginning with 1600. In this way the difference between the civil and natural year will not amount to a day in 3,000 years.

At the Park Theatre

N A Z I M O V A

Nazimova, conceded to be the most fascinating and talented actress on the screen, drew crowded houses at the Park theatre on the first day's presentation of "Eye for Eye." The production will be repeated today on Washington's Birthday. Special music accompanies it.

Nazimova is seen in the role of Hassouna, a Bedouin girl of the desert. It is a vivid drama of the Orient. The story is that of an Arabian girl, fiery and beautiful, who lives with her tribe in a city of tents on the edge of the desert. The French sent an expedition to the tribe of the Lost Roses and trouble ensues. All the French are cut down except their commander. He is taken prisoner.

Hassouna plays on the susceptibilities of the sentry at the tent, tosses in a knife to the Frenchman and he escapes. When the loss of the prisoner is discovered she confesses and is condemned to death, being given a jug of water and desired to die of thirst.

Another tribe picks her up, sells her in the slave market and she becomes the possession of a traveling circus. Views of the Orient give the languorous atmosphere in direct contrast with scenes of France, Oriental and Occidental life—love, hate, jealousy, deceit, treachery and revenge—all have their turn in this gripping and amazing play.

Wonderful things in the play are the dancing of Hassouna, her throwing a dagger within an inch of an adventurer's head, her spring dance in the desert, the infatuation of the sentry, the scene of the three lovers and the dismissal of two. It's a sensation all the way through the play and charms people. As a bewitching Oriental girl Nazimova knows no peer.

WOMAN'S REALM

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION HERE

Opens Sunday Afternoon at Bethlehem Lutheran Church on South 7th St., 3:30 O'clock

W. H. SCHILLING ADDRESS

In the Absence of Sergt. George Berggreen, Dr. Joseph Nicholson will Preside

The Brainerd District Sunday school convention will be held at the Bethlehem Lutheran church on South Seventh street on Sunday, Feb. 23. At 3:30 in the afternoon there will be a general conference for Sunday school workers conducted by W. H. Schilling, superintendent of the Minnesota Sunday School Association. Rev. Schilling is prominent in religious educational work, in all that applies to teaching, to grading, training of teachers and proper equipment of Sunday schools.

At 7:30 in the evening there will be song service. Scripture and prayer by Rev. Walter J. Smith. The Bethlehem quartet will sing, "Arlae Shine." Miss Esther Fogelstrom, secretary, will read her report. An offering follows and then the solo, "My Beautiful Home Above" by Mrs. George Berggreen. An address will be given by Mr. Schilling.

In the absence of George Berggreen, president, Dr. Joseph Nicholson will preside. Mr. Berggreen is a sergeant in army service.

All Protestant churches will join in the services at Bethlehem church in the evening.

Rosvold-Peterson

Miss Ragna Rosvold of Motley was married to Christ Oliver Peterson, lately returned from army service, at the parsonage of the Bethlehem Lutheran church, Rev. M. L. Hostager officiating at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The attendants were Adolph Rosvold, a brother, and Miss Paulina Rosvold, a sister of the bride. After a short wedding trip the young couple will make their home at Proctor.

At the Best Tomorrow

"Five Thousand an Hour," the Metro play starring Hafe Hamilton, which will appear at the Best theatre tomorrow, shows distinguished talent from all angles of the production—in the acting, authorship and direction.

Mr. Hamilton, who is seen as the star, is an actor of note and distinction both here and abroad and is known internationally for his famous presentation of the role of Wallingford in "Get-rich-quick Wallingford," which created such furor in England that it was caused, by Royal Command, to be presented before the King and Queen at Windsor Castle. Lucille Lee Stewart, who is seen in the leading feminine role of Constance Joy, is famous throughout the country for her beauty and charming personality and splendid screen work. Others of the cast, too numerous to mention are all well known in the theatrical world.

The play was taken from the clever novel of the same name written by George Randolph Chester, the eminent novelist and playwright, who was also the author of "Get-rich-quick Wallingford."

The production was made by Director Ralph W. Ince, one of the most distinguished of screen directors in America who has produced many famous productions both here and abroad.

Another distinguished member of the cast of "Five Thousand an Hour," worthy of note, is Hannibal, the beautiful chestnut horse, winner of the Saratoga Special. Hannibal is seen in the picture in the now famous race in which he won the cash prize of nine thousand dollars and the gold cup valued at ten thousand.

At the Best Today

The face of Lila Lee is a new and charming addition to the films. Her work in "The Cruise of the Make-Believes," her first Paramount picture, which is presented at the Best theatre today, is fair evidence of the sort of acting she is to give us in later screen plays. It is safe to assume that she will soon find her way to the hearts of thousands of admirers, and will be known as one of the prettiest and most popular little actresses in animated pictures.

"The Cruise of the Make-Believes" is a charming and fanciful story that holds the interest of the spectator throughout and little Miss Lee's beautiful and mobile face expresses the changes of emotions evoked by the characterization, in a thoroughly delightful way. It is doubtful if a more suitable first story for Miss Lee could have been found than this charming version of Tom Gallon's famous novel.

St. Paul's Guild Meeting

The Ladies Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will give a card party Friday evening, Feb. 28 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crowell, 320 North 4th street.

At the Best Monday

Of the personal experiences in the World War that have been published in the last two or three years, those of Harold Peat, known as "Private Peat" have engaged public attention almost exclusively. Mr. Peat's two years in the trenches, of which he speaks in his famous lecture, "Two Years in Hell and Back With a Smile," were experiences allotted to few and they have been visualized strikingly by Paramount in the photoplay "Private Peat," in which Mr. Peat is the star, and which will be displayed at the Best theatre next Monday.

Has Biblical Sanction.

The American Humane Education society thinks it has made a point by showing that "Spare the rod and spoil the child" cannot be found in the Bible, but was written by Samuel Butler in 1633. Butler probably got the alliterative "spare and spoil" from Ralph Venning, who used it in 1649, but the idea goes back to Proverbs 13:24: "He that spareth his rod hateth his son; but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes." We are with the Humane Society (and the chastening) in questioning the dominance of unselfish love in the average "chastening," but cannot approve of its quibbling as to the quotation, so far as substantial sanction goes.

But most people would be surprised to learn that the exact words were not scriptural, just as they would be to learn that there is no direct statement about the lion and the lamb lying down together. Many still think "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb" is from the Bible, although Sterne quoted it without credit, from Henry Estienne. Wesley's vague quotation of an ancient Hebrew's "Cleanliness is next to godliness" sounds like Bible. Numerous passages from hymns are also erroneously ascribed to scripture.—New York Times.

MYSTERIOUS PAINS AND ACHES

Make Life Hard to Bear For Many Brainerd Women

Too many women mistake their pains and aches for troubles peculiar to the sex. More often disordered kidneys are causing the aching back, dizzy spells, headaches and irregular urination. Kidney weakness becomes dangerous if neglected. Use a time-tried kidney remedy—Doan's Kidney Pills. Hosts of people testify to their merit. Read a Brainerd case:

Mrs. A. Noakes, 413 S. Ninth St., Brainerd, says: "I had been feeling miserable and sick all over for about a year and didn't know what was wrong with me until my kidneys began to show they were disordered. My feet would swell when I went to take off my shoes in the evening. I always had a tired and depressed feeling. I tried different remedies with no relief. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Skauge Drug Co. and began using them. After I had taken four boxes, I was cured."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Noakes had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEW BANK CASHIER

Graduate of Dakota Business College Promoted

It has been announced that C. J. Wage is to be the new cashier of the First State Bank, Ferny, S. D. Mr. Wage has risen steadily in the banking business since his graduation from the Dakota Business College, Fargo, N. D.

Pupils of this seat of business learning are always in great demand by banks and business firms. Just recently two positions with the American-Land Co., America, N. D., were filled by D. B. C. pupils, C. P. Meintzer at a salary of $125.00 and Maurice Bean at $85.00. Miss Eleanor Marks has just been employed by the North Dakota Legislature at Bismarck and Miss Mabel Damon by P. P. Schlosser, Registrar of Deeds, Grout Co., Carson, N. D.

The great demand for D. B. C. pupils is no doubt due to the fact that real business methods and not mere text-book theories are taught. F. L. Watkins, President of the Dakota Business College, 806 Front Street, Fargo, N. D., is always ready to answer inquiries.

THE A. E. F. ON THE Y. M. C. A.

The Stars and Stripes, France—the Soldiers Newspaper

To be thoroughly fashionable these days it is absolutely essential to jump on the Y. M. C. A. All the best people are doing it. An investigation of the Red Triangle has been in progress in the states and the same newspapers which a few months ago, were rashly giving over their columns to quite unscrutinized publicity for the Y are now devoting these columns to the most blistering criticism.

Out of all the jabber there will probably emerge the fact that the Y. M. C. A. was unexpectedly burdened with a much bigger task than it could possibly have performed to the satisfaction of all concerned, and that it was chiefly handicapped by an unfortunately chosen personnel. In its personnel its chief weakness has lain.

And on this point it should be remembered that the Y, unlike the government had to take what it could get. It could not draft, and it was obliged to do its recruiting for a most difficult job after the best America could boast in youth and enthusiasm had already been pledged to the army and navy.

How difficult its problem was you will never appreciate till you try to select a half a dozen ideal Y secretaries from among your own acquaintances. Old Shag Brown, the former football star, you say. But Brown was an artillery officer—graduate of the first Plattsburg camp. Buck Jones, then. But Buck has five kids and couldn't possibly walk out on them. Well, then, Hank Norton. Ah, but Norton enlisted in the infantry and was killed leading his platoon on November 11. You see, it wasn't easy.

Perhaps it would have been better if the Y. M. C. A. had been a mere shell to receive the money the home folks were sure to want to blow on luxuries for their boys at war, a great plate to catch not only the millions of the oil kings, but the nickels of the washwoman. The personnel to distribute all these bounties could have been chosen from the army's own ranks—as time went on—from among the men crippled in the fighting. A wounded man would have made the ideal Y. M. C. A. secretary. There was no one else in all the world who could have understood soldiers so well or been so well understood by them.

COMMUNICATION

Editor Dispatch—

The movement to erect a suitable memorial of some kind in honor of our brave soldier boys would, no doubt meet with the hearty approval of everyone if a popular form of memorial were chosen. If it is to be in the form of an expensive granite shaft, which would serve but one purpose. It is doubtful that the public would respond as liberally as they would if a memorial were chosen that would serve some useful purpose as well.

The fact is that during the past two years the public have been called upon to buy to give, and subscribe "until it hurts" and the end is not yet. It is reasonable to presume that under such circumstances, no matter how worthy the cause, the public is not in such financial circumstances as would enable them to respond with a large degree of liberality at this time.

Commercial Air Routes.
 London, Feb. 22. — "Preparations must be made for the day when all British air routes will play a great part in the maintenance of the commercial existence of the British empire" said Maj. Gen. He said that the British government had for some time been engaged in mapping out stages on an air route from Cairo to Australia by way of Karachi, Singapore and the Sunda Islands. Postal service by airplane is a practical proposition, he said.

PVT. JESSIE R. FREEMAN

Recovering From Influenza in Hospital Near Trier, Germany—With Army of Occupation

Private Jesse R. Freeman, Co. G., 360th Infantry, A. E. F., under date of January 21, writes from Vac. Hospital No. 3, Trier, Germany, to his mother and all:

"It has been a week since I have written to you folks, but I have been sick in bed with the flu. Yesterday was the first time I have been outside for a week. I am feeling fine again now."

"My eyes are getting on fine now. Think I will be leaving here soon. I wish I could get back to my company so I would get some mail. We are still having fine weather. Have not had any snow yet. Last night was the first time there has been any ice on the ground. It has been raining some, but not so much as last month."

"We are going to have a show here tonight. I expect it will be good. We are having good cats now, jam and milk, rice and cocoa, the best I have eaten since I came across. We sure do have a good time in our ward. Most of the fellows are in for their eyes and are not very sick. I would like to visit the city where I am before I go, but do not think I will get the chance. It is one of the oldest cities in Europe, built before Christ. I have seen a lot of sights and gone through many hardships, but I am glad any way I came. One hears of so many boys getting home, it makes the rest of us homesick. I will close with love to all and hope it finds all of you well."

Many Germans Arrested.

American Headquarters in Germany, Feb. 4.—Two hundred and nineteen Germans have been arrested and tried by American courts martial during the two months of American occupation, according to figures made public. There were 206 convictions, imprisonments ranged from one to 90 days and fines from one mark (25 cents) to 500 marks ($125). Offenses included violation of liquor regulations; wearing German military uniforms and holding unauthorized meetings.

COMING BACK TWICE, IT'S KID GLEASON

BY H. C. HAMILTON, (Staff Correspondent, United Press)

CHAPTER VIII

When Clarence Rowland assumed the responsibilities as manager of the White Sox the team that Comiskey was grooming to fight for a world pennant was badly in need of a coach. Things were going along in a so-so manner and the men were not delivering as they should. Consequently during the winter of 1916-1917, the Old Roman succeeded in coaxing Gleason away from his eastern business and back into baseball.

The effect was noticeable at once. The individuality that Gleason always seems able to impart to young players under his tutelage developed at once in the youthful players assigned to infield positions by Rowland. In Swede Risberg, Gleason found a willing pupil for his fighting ideas, and he developed in Risberg an absolutely fearless, scrappy shortstop who stands even today as an exponent of old-time baseball—the kind of baseball the Orioles played.

Down the far end of the 1917 season the White Sox charged, a weary crew, fighting off attack after attack from the Tigers and Red Sox. For a few days it seemed the superior fighting ability and stronger pitching staff of the Boston team would deprive Comiskey of his hopes for another pennant winner in the American league.

It was the fighting spirit of Kid Gleason that stepped into the breach, practically lifted the reins of authority from Clarence Rowland and deftly guided the faltering machine through the rough spots to a pennant.

Gleason, let it be understood, had no thought of directing the team's play, but his unconscious strength of personality, imparting confidence and his own ideas to the weary and crippled Sox, gave the club a Gleason tinge and left no doubt in the minds of close critics as to who was really responsible for the tenacity shown by the Comiskey team.

The Sox had been charged with having no heart. They were said to be a listless organization, easily beaten when the other team was leading, but Gleason showed that they weren't. He made them fight the way he had fought and they did a good job of it.

When the world's series came around and the Sox met the giants for the game's greatest honors, it was the Giants who went onto the field with palling faces—not the White Sox. They won mainly because of the Kid Gleason spirit that had lifted them to the pennant.

Law of Compensation.

The law of compensation is, even in these wonderful modern days, very much in evidence. Most of us—in fact, all of us—receive from the world just what we give to it. Smiles and happy words will fall from other lips to us if we ourselves play the same role; but if we are too busy or too "big" to practice those little courtesies we should not be surprised to see only frowns on the faces we meet.

No More Sour Stomach!

If you want to avoid sour stomach, follow this simple plan: Keep your bowels active and free from food-waste.

Your druggist has a product called SALINOS, which will completely empty the bowels and will remove the cause of sour stomach. It will do more—it will remove the cause of nearly all sickness. Food waste, which lies in the bowels creates dangerous poisons, which are absorbed into the blood. Use SALINOS and avoid this danger.

Pleasant in taste, pleasant, prompt and sure in action. It does not grip. Get a bottle. It is fully effective in cold water. Warm water is sickening, don't use it. Take SALINOS first thing tomorrow morning. Be safe.

CARRIED YANKEE TROOPS TO FRANCE

Gustav C. Menz, Sailor on the Narragansett Running Between Southampton and LeHavre

MINES FLOATING NEAR HOLLAND

Saw the Kiel Canal, Heligoland, Copenhagen—To Come Home Soon on a Furlough

In a letter to his brother, H. F. Menz, 220 South Seventh street, Gustav C. Menz of the U. S. S. Narragansett, writes from LeHavre, France, under date of January 21 and says he is a salty sailor seeing the world for nothing.

"I received your letter and was glad to hear from you. We are all well. Well Herman you wanted to know what I am doing over here. Most anything at all.

We sailed from Hoboken N. J., right across from New York city, on July 10 and it took us ten days to get to Brest, France. We had fairly good weather coming across although it was stormy enough for us.

There were twenty-two ships in our convoy including destroyers and cruisers. When we got in what they call the war zone, we met twelve more destroyers to help convey us into Brest. They sighted a periscope about a hundred miles from Brest, but the sub never attacked us. Well we got in battle formation and pulled into Brest and stayed there four days and got shore liberty there but the town is dead.

July 24th we sailed for Southampton England getting there 36 hours later. In a few days we coaled up and took American troops from there to Havre France. We made this run steady about two trips a week. Altogether from Southampton to Havre we made twenty-five trips with troops taking 4,000 each load across, back and forth making forty-eight trips. We made a few trips after the armistice was signed and then went to Havre to coal up and go to Hamburg, Germany, but when we were off the coast of Holland we received a wireless to go to Harwich, England and so we did, took on more coal, and instead of going to Hamburg went to Copenhagen, Denmark. You see our orders were changed.

On our way up we saw three mines and for the night anchored at Ljunden, Holland, as you can't see floating mines at night. Next morning we sailed for Copenhagen and on our way saw seventeen mines floating near by. We could not use the Kiel canal in going there so we had to go all the way around. That town is sure some place. Lots of cabarets and saloons. We were there a week and sailed for Rotterdam, Holland. In coming back we went through the Kiel canal and sure found it some water way. We landed at Rotterdam two days later. On our way down we saw the German fortress of Heligoland. Well Herman, I could write a book on what I have seen and have been through. I hope you are all in good health as I am. Will write more in a few days. It will be some time before I come back to the U. S. A. I have to serve four years in the navy, but I am coming home in the meantime on a furlough.

House Passes Rail Fund Bill.
Washington, Feb. 22.—The bill appropriating $750,000,000 for the railroad administration revolving fund, in addition to the $500,000,000 carried in the act which provided for federal control, was passed by the house with 15 negative votes. Senator Cummins of Iowa gave notice to the senate in interstate commerce committee that he would seek to add to the revolving fund measure his bill to prevent the return of the railroads to private ownership before congress acts on railroad legislation.

Revolt Reported at Munich.
Bavaria, Feb. 22.—A reactionary insurrection broke out at Munich, according to the Frankfort Zeitung. Demobilized Bavarian blue-jackets attacked the diet house and occupied the telegraph office and police headquarters but were dislodged by government troops. Prince Joachim of Prussia, sixth son of the former emperor, was arrested, it being reported that he apparently had some connection with the movement. He has been staying at Munich under the name of Count Merz.

CHILD WELFARE BOARD ACTIVITIES

County Organization is Working in Cooperation With the State Board of Control

AIDS NEGLECTED CHILDREN

Children of School Age Should be in School—Mrs. Carl Bentley is Secretary of Board

(By County Child Welfare Board)
The county child welfare board, working in cooperation with the State Board of Control, is undertaking to find out about and help every handicapped, neglected child in the county. According to the members of the board a task of such large purposes will require the assistance and cooperation of everyone who knows of children in need or distress. The members of the board say that if any citizen of the county knows of a child who is not properly fed or clothed, or is living in unsanitary or unhealthy condition, or whose material or spiritual welfare is neglected, such cases should be reported to the child welfare board, that an effort may be made to remedy the condition.

All children of school age, according to County Superintendent of Schools Irma Camp Hartley, should be in school regularly and for the full term. The county superintendent is a member of the child welfare board. She and the board should be informed of children who are not in school and proper action will be taken. Sometimes unscrupulous persons abuse children, make them work when they should be in school, employ them for long hours or in dangerous occupation or otherwise make them labor in violation of the law. The child welfare board can help such children, and will cooperate with the State Department of Labor to that end.

In this community, as in other communities, there are feeble-minded persons who are a menace to themselves, their families and the community. It is desired by the members of the child welfare board that they should know of such cases and the matter will be taken up with Probate Judge Sanborn, for commitment to the State Board of Control.

The superintendent of the State Schools for the Blind and Deaf report that there are children in the public schools who are partially either blind or deaf and who cannot be properly trained unless they are sent to the state institution for such children for the school term. The child welfare board will take the proper steps in behalf of such children.

Ill health is costly, according to the reports of the State Board of Health, and there are many children in need of medical attention, which parents sometimes refuse to give, that is removal of tonsils or adenoids, care of the teeth, crippled or deformed children in need of care at the State Hospital, tubercular children, children with weak eyes. If the child welfare board and the county or school nurse know the facts of such cases, they can work out a plan for providing medical attention and can secure the assistance of Dr. E. J. Huenekens of the Department of Child Conservation of the State Board of Health. It is further stated that where proper home supervision is lacking, children develop bad habits and vicious tendencies, they associate with bad companions, are guilty of immoral conduct, petty theft, rough behavior in public places, are guilty of truancy, incorrigibility and violation of laws and principles of right conduct. The child welfare board and Judge Sanborn of the Juvenile Court can help such children. Conditions frequently exist in villages and towns which tend to corrupt morals, such as homes of people of low moral standards, pool halls, dances and dance halls without supervision, places where liquor and tobacco are covertly supplied to children. The child welfare board should take steps to root out such influences.

According to reports from the Children's Bureau of the State Board of Control in many cases children under the age of eighteen years guilty of some violation of law are being tried before the ordinary criminal courts. Probate Judge Sanborn is the juvenile court judge and is the proper official to hear all cases where

Brainerd emerged from the game with Aitkin last night as the winner in a fast clean game of basket ball by the score of 26-13. The game was interesting throughout with Brainerd leading in team work and shooting. The players of Aitkin continually tried for long, desperate shots from past the center of the floor which greatly interfered with the team work of the locals. The guarding of Warner and Bakilla was superb, not one Aitkinite caging a field basket at close range.

The floor work of Cunningham, Reid and Higbe was also a main factor in winning, each securing baskets under great difficulties. Sheffo and Engstrom played spectacular ball on the side lines entertaining the faint hearted girls whenever Brainerd made a basket. Henry Nelson and Clifford Stoner formed the routing squad, securing overflowing applause from the crowd through their earnest work.

The team was treated royally afterwards to a banquet by the girls of the high school, later engaging in a high school ball and reception. Coach Byers of Brainerd, was the toastmaster of the evening and made a favorable impression for the Brainerd boys.

Brainerd will probably not see the locals again in action this season on the home floor. Staples, which was to play here a week from today, has cancelled the game on account of the disbanding of their team for the season. The directors of the local team are trying to secure a game with some out side team for the next game, probably St. Cloud Normal at St. Cloud, March 8th the locals journey to Little Falls where the decisive game of the season takes place and the next week to St. Cloud, ending the season at that city.

offenses have been committed by children under the age of eighteen. The child welfare board if it knows this law is being violated will see that the proper procedure is followed.

Experiences of the State Board of Control according to its report has demonstrated that the unmarried mother and the illegitimate child are very often neglected, ignored or reviled. The board believes that the child welfare board of the county can lend friendly assistance and help both the mother and child. When the father fails to support his wife and children, the child welfare board, according to the State Board of Control, should cooperate with the county attorney in bringing a prompt action against the husband and father for desertion or non-support.

Records compiled by interested persons have shown that there is considerable violation of girls under eighteen years of age. The Board of Control has asked that all such cases be vigorously prosecuted under the carnal knowledge statute, and the child welfare board will cooperate to the end.

Members of the child welfare board are: L. P. Hall, Bay Laker Wm. Syreen, Crosby; Mrs. Bert Sabin, Merrifield; Mrs. Carl Bentley, Brainerd.

All communications should be addressed to the secretary, Mrs. Carl Bentley, 622 So. 9th St., Brainerd, Minn.

According to the Children's Bureau of the State Board of Control, "The child welfare board working with the Board of Control, the board of county commissioners, the probate judge and the county attorney can help all children of the county who are not being cared for and cannot help themselves, but it is necessary that publicity be given to the efforts of the board; that all authorities cooperate. It is equally necessary that the child welfare board treat every case reported as a sacred confidence, not to be disclosed to any one under any conditions except the proper authorities at the proper time.

When the Dispatch published Thomas Basset's story of a February lamb, and then Ike Hodge's record of 36 lambs in January and some in February, there followed Albert Krueger with seven lambs born this year. He caps the climax with twin lambs born Feb. 21 on his birthday. Last year the same thing happened, twins on the 21st, the day before George Washington's birthday.

FROM BLOIS, FRANCE

Pvt. Fred E. Olson in Hdqs. Co. Writes His Sister, Miss Myrtle Olson of Brainerd

In a letter to his sister, Miss Myrtle Olson, of 1903 Fourth Avenue North-east, Private Fred E. Olson, stationed at Blois, France, writes under date of January 20th:

Dear Sister:
For the last couple of months I have been writing to everyone but as yet have not received a reply from one of them so am going to see what results I will have by writing to you again.

A bunch of the boys received letters this morning that had been written in the month of January and when they were reading them thought if I could only get some for the month of November I would be glad. I do not understand it as I have been at this post so long that I should be getting mail regularly.

I met a Brainerd boy here the other day by the name of Frank Ramsey and had quite a little talk with him, he said that he was coming back yesterday morning but did not show up, may be got stuck on some detail work for the day. He is going to start for the states tomorrow and promised me that he would have a talk with Pa or someone in the family and he will be able to tell you a great many interesting things, as he has been up to the front and been in some of the worst fighting he was also wounded.

Suppose by this time a great many of the boys are back to the old home town that have seen service in France. Would like to have you write me the names of some of the boys that were killed over here as suppose there must have been quite a few that I knew.

I just finished eating a box of bonbons which were very good they are put up in a small paper box and are a small candy covered with chocolate with a cream candy in the middle. A box costs one franc five centimes which is equivalent to about twenty cents in American money. I just got paid the other day and had two months coming so have got quite a few francs now. But francs never last an American soldier very long as he seems to be happier when he is broke. But think I will go slow with mine as haven't been broke since being in France which I think is some record for me.

Next Sunday think I will take a trip to Amboise and see one of the large Chateaus they have there but do not know for sure as have also been planning on going across the river if I can get a pass which I am pretty certain I can and take in the dance they have over there. It sure is a joke the way they dance over here, do not believe the French girls could have ever danced here before the Americans came, by the way they dance. I sure will be glad when I can take in a good American dance once more.

I have told you about all the experiences I have had in the other letters I have written home so really do not know what to write about, but thought that you would be glad to get a line once in a while just to know that everything is going well. When I receive mail will be able to write more as expect you will all be asking some questions and will be able to answer them, so then you can be getting news that you want.

Will come to a close with love to all.

Think In Interest—Save

HALE HAMILTON.
At the Best Tomorrow

For Employers' Consideration.
Men can have no hope in their work while they live purely from hand to mouth, and you cannot spread habits of intelligence among the laboring class if their means are too poor or their leisure too short to enable them to participate in the culture that is going on around them.—Exchange.

Criterion of Civilization.
It is impossible to contemplate without interest the struggle made by different nations, as they emerge from barbarism, to supply themselves with some visible symbol of thought—that agency by which the mind of the individual may be put in communication with the minds of a whole community. The want of such a symbol is itself the greatest impediment to the progress of civilization. For what is it but to imprison the thought within the bosom of its author, or of the small circle who come in contact with him, instead of sending it abroad to give light to thousands and to generations yet unborn? Not only is such a symbol an essential element of civilization, but it may be assumed as the very criterion of civilization, for the intellectual advancement of a people will keep pace pretty nearly with its facilities for intellectual communication.—William Prescott in "The Conquest of Peru."

Undersea Photos.
Prof. W. H. Longley, of Goulay college, Baltimore, has completed a set of thirty-two under-water photographs of the brilliantly colored tropical fish which inhabit the waters of Hawaii. Taken with a specially designed camera, Prof. Longley hopes to develop the plates to reproduce the natural colors. He believes they are the first photographs of the kind taken. The plates have been packed in airtight cases for shipment to Baltimore, where they will be developed.

DEFY TERMS OF TRUCE

Germans Attacking Poles Contrary to Agreement.

Kiev Reported Again in Hands of Anarchists. Many of Whom Come From Moscow.

Warsaw, Feb. 22.—Kiev is reported to be again in the hands of the anarchists, a large number of who have come from Moscow to assist those who have been in the city.

Petlura's forces are involved in the fighting there, it is reported, and are at the same time trying to hold back the Poles on the north and resist pressure from the Roumanians in Besarabia.

Advices received here indicate French troops advancing from Odessa are half way to Kiev.

Violating Truce Terms.

Warsaw, Feb. 22.—The Germans are reported not to be observing the provisions of the armistice agreement as to fighting in Posen and it is said that skirmishes have occurred at scattered points. The morale of the Germans is declared to be low as is evidenced by the reported sale of a battery of artillery to a Polish Catholic priest, the price being $1,500.

Colonel Haller, Polish chief of staff announced in a bulletin that there is military activity all along the Galician frontier. Attacks by Ukrainian troops have been repulsed in that region. In Lithuania thousands of Bolsheviks have been routed and prisoners taken.

Two million pounds of flour have arrived here from Danzig, coming thru by railroad in record time without interference from the Germans. It will be distributed in this city, the Lodz mining district, Cracow and Lemberg. American officers will supervise of the flour and will prevent speculators from getting it.

COUNTRY "BEER DRY" MAY 1

Prediction Made by President of United Brewers' Association.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 22.—Prediction that the nation's beer supply would be exhausted by May 1, was made in a statement issued by Christian W. Feigenspan, president of the United States Brewers' association, announcing that the breweries of this vicinity had agreed to pool their supplies "to allow each concern to stay in business as long as possible." After adding that New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut would be "beer dry" by April 1, the statement continued: "With the country dry of beer by May 1, you can see what it will mean for May and June. The country will be on a straight whisky basis, and in these days of unrest it is dangerous to have steady beer drinkers switch to whisky. The results may surprise people."

German Regime Unchanged.

Paris, Feb. 22.—"The German government is the same bureaucratic regime of the Kaiser's day with the same attitude toward labor and capital and does not represent the forces which caused the revolution," says Alonzo E. Taylor, food specialist, who has just returned from Germany. "Count von Bernstorff is in charge of American affairs and the foreign office and the bureaucrats of the old school are in evidence everywhere," he added. "The Germans are becoming Russified."

ONE GOOD REASON FOR LARGE ARMY

ADMINISTRATION, IT IS SAID, THINKS MEXICO MAY HAVE TO BE CLEANED UP.

SHOW OF FORCE DESIRABLE

Senator Sheppard Says Many Drinkers Cannot Realize They Seen Will Be Deprived of Liquor—Jim Mann as a Florist.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington.—While it has not been stated in debates, there is some ground for the belief that one reason why an army of 500,000 men is desired is because the administration is reluctantly coming to the conclusion that the United States must go in and clean up Mexico. It may be that no such conclusion will ever be reached, but the information which has been coming to the state department from various agencies in Mexico indicates that ultimately it will be necessary for the United States to use force of some kind in order to protect the lives and property of Americans as well as foreigners.

Of course that would mean making war on Mexico. It would probably require a declaration of war by congress, although Mexican soil has twice been invaded under direction of President Wilson without any declaration of war. One of the things that causes quite bitter complaint in congress is that the United States is now fighting in Russia without any declaration of war, which is claimed to be in violation of the Constitution. However, it may not require actual hostilities against Mexico, but only preparation which will convince the Mexicans that the United States really means to have a settlement of Mexican affairs.

Of course when the facts that have been gathered during his absence are laid before President Wilson he may not look upon them as seriously as do those men who have been making the investigations. But it is the opinion of many who have had access to the information now on file in the state department that a forceful settlement of Mexican affairs is bound to come.

"They cannot realize that we are really going to have prohibition throughout the United States," was the remark of Senator Sheppard of Texas, who has been one of the foremost promoters of the prohibition movement since he first came to congress. His remark followed a conversation about the efforts of "wet" prohibitionists who have been scurrying mightily during the last few weeks to get a supply of liquors in their possession before the Sheppard law and the Reed bone-dry amendment clamp down on the District of Columbia. It seems that a great many congressmen who voted for prohibition are prohibitionists in theory rather than in practice and they want to get some wet goods stored away in Washington against the dry time that is coming. To do this they have to sign affidavits that they want the liquor for personal use and they

No Funds Provided in Sundry Civil Supply Bill.

Washington, Feb. 22.—No appropriations for the continuance of several government events created during the war, including the Department of Labor's employment service, are contained in the new sundry civil appropriation bill reported to the house by the appropriations committee. The measure carries $850,766,309 for various departments and also provides for turning back to the treasury $21,905,518 of unexpended war appropriations.

Think It Over.

Upon the basis that every grain of wheat will produce 50, a German mathematician has figured that the third-year progeny of a single grain would feed 300 men.

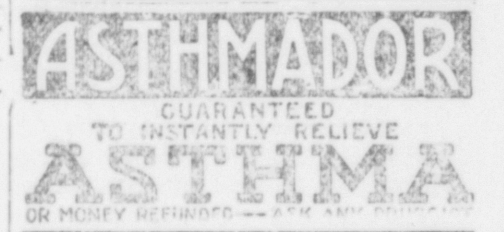

Daily Health Talks

GOING BACK TO NATURE.

BY DR. W. LUCAS.

People get sick because they go away from Nature, and the only way to get well is to go back. Something grows out of the ground in the form of vegetation to cure almost every ill. Some of these vegetable growths are understood by man, and some are not. Animals, it would seem, know what to do when they are sick better than men and women. Observers have noted that a sick horse, dog or cat will stop eating food and seek out some vegetable growth in the field or yard, which, when found and eaten, often restores appetite and health. Haven't you seen these animals do this very thing yourself?

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found the herbs and roots provided by Nature to overcome constipation, and he had these vegetables collected and made up of Mayapple, leaves of Aloe, root of Jalap, into little white sugar-coated pills, that he called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. You must understand that when your intestines are stopped up, poisons and decayed matter are imprisoned in your system, and these are carried by the blood throughout your body. Thus does your head ache, you get dizzy, you can't sleep, your skin may break out, your appetite declines, you get tired and despondent. As a matter of fact, you may get sick all over. Don't you see how useless all this suffering is? All that is often needed is a few of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which he has placed in all drug stores for your convenience and health. Try them by all means. They are probably the very thing you need right now.
